This week's featured titles are available on the book and CD racks in the back, center of the church free of charge. Donations accepted to help us restock material.

CD of the week, St. Ignatius and the Company of Jesus: Seriously wounded in battle, the soldier Ignatius had a profound conversion to Christ during his period of healing and recovery. He abandoned a promising career in the military and dedicated the rest of his life to the service of Christ and the Church. This single CD excerpt tells of his starting one of the most influential orders in the church, and gives a graphic account of his adventures, his many encounters with popes, kings and emperors, and the great work the Jesuits did in spreading the Gospel.

Book of the week, Made for More: While everything you do — and every decision you make — is aimed at making you happy, you may step back from time to time and ask yourself, "Why am I here?" and "Is there a deeper meaning to life?" To find these answers, you need go beyond the distractions of the world and be open to discovering your true purpose and self-potential. If you find your true purpose, you'll discover that you really are "made for more" than what our culture has to offer. You'll see life as the adventure it's meant to be, and you'll find that you have an irreplaceable role to play in the world. This will set you on a path toward true peace and contentment that will last for the rest of your life — and into eternity. This book is quick and easy to read, answering the question: "Why be Catholic?" Made for More establishes a case for Catholicism by posing and answering objections to Jesus, the Bible, and the liturgy.
